

The Lakshmi Prosperity Mantra and Practice

OM SHRIM MAHA LAKSHMIYEI SWAHA

This is a mantra to the Hindu Goddess of Prosperity, Lakshmi. Mantras are usually chanted 108 times a day for a minimum of 40 days. If there is a greater need for help, then chant for 80, 120, etc. consecutive days. A set of Mala beads will enable you to count out the 108 recitations. It takes only about 8 minutes a day to do.

If you have an altar, place on it a small dish of rice. Essential oils will also serve to bring these Divine energies closer. About 2 times a week, dump the rice out in nature and replace with fresh rice.

This is a non-denominational practice.

This really works! Really!
